

Read to Rise is a summer reading incentive program for elementary school children in Southwest Idaho. The program allows students to continue building their reading comprehension skills by rising to the challenge of reading throughout the summer. It will be held in conjunction with the Spirit of Boise Balloon Classic presented by CapEd Credit Union. The top 5 Schools with most minutes read will receive a balloon inflate demonstration and an assembly on balloon aviation at their school. The contest will run from June 1, 2017- August 25, 2017. The top five schools will be notified on August 29, 2017 as winners and to schedule balloon inflate and demonstration in September 2017. The winners will be announced at the Spirit of Boise Balloon Classic on Friday, September 1, 2017.
