

Truth-In-Savings Disclosure Effective April 1, 2015

COMMON FEATURES

- Par value of the Primary Share Savings account is $5.00. You must complete payment of one $5.00 share in your Primary Share Savings account to become a member of the credit union and open additional accounts.
- Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after required transfers to reserves at the end of the dividend period. Except for certificate accounts, the Dividend Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Yield (APY) may change at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Dividend Rates and APYs are prospective rates and yields that we anticipate paying for the applicable dividend period. Dividends are not guaranteed.
- The APY is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account based on the dividend rate and frequency of compounding for an annual period. APY is based on the assumption that the principle and dividends earned will remain in the account. A withdrawal will reduce your earnings.
- For current dividend rates and APYs, please refer to the CapEd Rate Sheet that accompanies this disclosure.
- Dividends begin to accrue on the business day you make your deposit.
- If you close your checking account before dividends are posted, dividends will not be paid.
- Dividends are calculated using the Daily Balance Method which applies a daily periodic rate to the balance in the account each day.
- Regulation D Rules—For certain accounts, you may not make more than six withdrawals or transfers to another credit union account by means of a preauthorized or automatic transfer, telephone request, or by check, draft, debit card, or similar order to a third party within a calendar month. If you exceed the six transfer limit, your account may be closed.

You may withdraw dividends credited in the term before maturity of that term without penalty. You can withdraw dividends on the first day after the crediting date.

Early Withdrawal. In the event an early withdrawal reduces the balance of the account below the required minimum balance, the certificate will be closed and the penalty described below will be imposed on the entire amount in the account. In the event an early withdrawal does not reduce the balance of the account below the required minimum balance, a penalty will be imposed only on the amount withdrawn.

Early Withdrawal Penalties. If your account has an original maturity of one year or less, we may impose a penalty equal to the lesser of:

- 90 days of dividends
- The number of days from renewal/opening date to the date of withdrawal at the rate currently in effect for the account, or
- Seven days of dividends on the amount withdrawn if earned dividends are less than seven days' dividends
- If your account has an original maturity of more than one year, we may impose a penalty equal to the lesser of:
 - 180 days of dividends
 - The number of days from renewal/opening date to the date of withdrawal at the rate currently in effect for the account, or

The balance on which the penalty is figured is the amount withdrawn less available dividends. If you have withdrawn all dividends at the time of early withdrawal, the penalty is taken from the principal.

In certain circumstances such as the death, incompetence, or disability of an owner of this account, the law may require that we waive the early withdrawal penalty. Other exceptions may also apply.

Consult your tax advisor for any IRS penalty for withdrawals.

You will have a ten calendar day grace period after maturity to withdraw the funds without being charged an early withdrawal penalty. We can prevent renewal if we mail you a notice at least 30 calendar days before maturity. If we or you prevent renewal, your funds will be placed in an IRA, ESA, or MSA Share Account.
